BRINGHURST WINS IN EAST

VICTORY OF CAMDEN JUVENILE AT SARATOGA IS ACCOMPLISHED WITH EASE.

Conviction Grows That Eastern Juveniles Are Inferior to Those from Kentucky—Flying Fairy Is Returned Winner of Alabama Stakes.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 4.—Although rain fell here throughout last night, the track was in good condition for the races this afternoon, which was a great surprise. As a result, some good racing was seen, fields of good size with well-matched horses going to the post in all but one race. The talent was not especially successful in picking the winners, as several favorites were beaten.

The stake attraction of the day was the Alabama, and Flying Fairy, a prohibitive choice, led all the way and won easily from Cadeau.

The Alabama Stakes was instituted in 1872 and was discontinued from 1893 until 1901. Its tabled history from the latter date follows:

Year.	Winner.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1901	Morningside	W. N. Turner	$1,900 1:47 1/2
1902	Par Excellence	W. N. Turner	3,850 1:47 1/2
1903	Stamper	Ground 116 Fuller	4,625 1:56 3/4
1904	Beldane	124 O'Neill	3,850 1:53 3/4
1905	Tradition	124 W. Davis	4,850 2:10 1/2
1906	Running Water	116 W. Miller	3,850 1:52 3/4
1907	Kenneth	116 W. Miller	3,850 1:52 3/4
1908	Mayfield	106 C. H. Shiff	3,850 2:01
1909	Maskette	124 Secville	3,850 1:59 1/2
1910	Ocean Bound	124 C. H. Shiff	3,850 1:55 1/2
1913	Flying Fairy	113 T. Davis	1,455 1:56 1/4

In 1901, 1902 and 1903 the race was at 1-1/4 miles, and in 1904, 1906 and 1907 at 1-1/8 miles. No racing in 1911 and 1912.

Judging from the results in the two-year-old races run up to date, the westerners will have things much their own way unless some of the eastern owners are not as yet uncovered their best, which is not likely. On Saturday Old Rosebud made a show of Stromboli and today Bringhurst outran Stromboli from start to finish, and neither of the eastern colts had an excuse to offer.

Stromboli, surprising, have been rated as two of the best in the east, so the outlook does not appear promising for the eastern juveniles.

The maiden steeplechase went to Son of the Wind, which has been the runner-up in several events this season. Repentant, a newcomer at the game, gave him quite an argument at the end and she made him quite a good one. Repentant is a gift horse, her owner, P. S. P. Randolph, having received her as a present from Thomas Hitchcock. It may be that she will turn out to be another Plate Glass, as Mr. Hitchcock presented Plate Glass to Mr. Randolph after he had made a poor showing in a jumping race at Gravesend.

S. Taylor, who had the mount on Royal Meteor in the fifth race, is an Australian rider who recently landed in this country. He was said to have been a successful rider abroad, but he will have to do better than he did today to make good here. He rode Royal Meteor poorly. In the hands of a good rider, Royal Meteor would have been close to being the winner.

Gifford Cochran appears to be going into racing on a considerable scale, as he was quite a purchaser at the yearling sales held this afternoon before the races began.

The westerners and easterners equally divided the card today.

The developments of Saturday and today have led to the general conviction that racing is destined to again flourish in New York state. The sport is now surely being re-established on a firm basis, with an element missing that did much to bring it into disrepute.

Today the officials of the racing association expressed themselves as highly pleased with the opening day. They declared that in every respect it was far beyond their expectations.

NOBILITY AT VANCOUVER RACES.

Many nobles attended the races of the British Columbia Thoroughbred Association at Minoru Park, Vancouver, B. C., last Wednesday, when the officers and crew of the British cruiser New Zealand, which is making a tour of the world, were guests of the association. A luncheon was given in honor of the distinguished visitors at the clubhouse, where seventy-five sat down to enjoy the hospitality of General Manager Hugh E. Springer, who acted as host. Among the distinguished guests were Sir Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia; Prince George of Battenburg, a nephew of King George V.; Prince Louis of Battenburg; Lord Burghersh, Lord Carlisle; Capt. Halsey and Commander Grace of the New Zealand. Several of the visitors rode in the gentlemen's cup race that was the feature of the afternoon's racing.

ENFORCING THE LAW AT SARATOGA.

District Attorney Gives Explicit Definition of What May and May Not Be Done.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 4.—"I have been on the job every minute since racing began here," Sheriff Clarence L. Grippen of Saratoga County is quoted as saying, "and I can honestly say that I have not seen any violations of the law against gambling. I have twenty-one deputies here and I have instructed them to report to me any violations of the law. No complaints have been made of gambling and so far as I can see the law has been complied with."

That there is plenty of speculation at the track is conceded, but it is conducted in such a manner that it is within the law. No money is passed and no attempt is made at so-called bookmaking. Sheriff Grippen and his men mingle with the crowd and where there is an unusual gathering the sheriff warns them to be careful and not transgress the law. There was a conference Saturday morning attended by District Attorney Lawrence B. McKelvey, Sheriff Grippen and his deputies, William A. Pinkerton, Police Commissioner James H. King and Police Magistrate Charles B. Andrews. The district attorney addressed the deputies and instructed them as to their duties under the law. He said in substance:

"A private bet made between two friends, with or without writing or a memorandum, is not a crime, nor are several such bets, even when made by the same parties, a crime. On the other hand, the laying of odds and soliciting of bets from the public by men who do this habitually and as a business, constitutes bookmaking and is a crime."

"The law makes a clear distinction between the man who does ordinary betting and the one whose business is the soliciting of bets from the public, and it is against the latter the law is directed. Professional bookmaking does not necessarily have to be recorded; there can be oral bookmaking, too, provided the evidence against the alleged maker of books shows that he habitually and professionally solicits bets."

Mr. McKelvey based his opinion on the decisions handed down by the court on the Shane case, and several other decisions of the court. In reading these decisions to the sheriff and those called into the conference, the district attorney explained that he wished to make clear to them the anti-betting laws as regarded by the courts and by whom decision his own interpretations would be governed.

Ruling that private betting by large numbers of people would be a crime, District Attorney McKelvey decided that this condition might easily lead to confusion and disorder. Accordingly the men were instructed to report and prevent such a state of betting.

In any case where the circumstances seemed suspicious in the actions of a suspect, the Pinkerton men were urged to report the case to the sheriff. If they could not collect sufficient evidence to warrant an arrest.

Unlike the Pinkerton men, whose jurisdiction was confined to the track, the deputies, said the district attorney, were not only guardians of the Saratoga track, but their authority extended all over the county. They were in duty bound to suppress all forms of gambling in that territory, and if bookmakers and gamblers, intent upon getting favors, should become unduly friendly and enter into exchange of confidences with them, the district attorney said he would prosecute any man who, affected by these friendly advances, failed to do his duty.

TEN THOUSAND AT DUFFERIN PARK.

Toronto, Ont., August 4.—All former records were shattered when fully 10,000 people crowded every available bit of space at Dufferin Park for the opening of the Metropolitan Racing Association's summer meeting this afternoon. Conditions were ideal, the weather being fine and cool and the track fast.

Nine well-filled races made up the card, four of which were won by heavily-backed favorites. Eva Tanguay, after receding from 5 to 1 to 10 to 1, provided an upset in the Civic Holiday Handicap, the seventh and feature race. She followed the pace of Nila to the stretch, then drew away into an easy victory. Cuttyhunk was doing his best to outstay Dynamite, which finished fast after meeting much early interference.

After her decisive victory in the fifth race, Miss Felix was bid up to $305, an advance of $100 over her entered selling price. She was retained by owner Charles Farr. Racing Bell pulled up lame after finishing third in this race.

The rest of the races finished close and exciting finishes.

For striking jockey Skirvin with his whip during the running of the second race, jockey Quinlan was indefinitely suspended.

STAKES FOR WINDSOR'S SECOND MEETING.

Detroit, Mich., August 4.—A total of one hundred and sixty entries have been received for the five stakes to be decided during the second summer meeting of the Windsor Jockey Club, August 16-23. This number does not really indicate the full strength of the entry list, as the small number of nominations to the Canadian Handicap brings down the average considerably to what it would be if that fixture were to be eliminated in compiling the statistics.

The feature of the opening day will be the D. B. I. & W. Ferry Handicap, 1 1/16 miles, as usual. There are 36 nominations to this fixture, embracing the best of the handicap division in training on the American turf. The stake is to be worth $2,500 this year, an increase of $500 over its previous valuation. In the list of eligibles are Flabbergast, Lochiel, Paton, Plate Glass, First Sight, Calgary, Little Father, Little Hall, Milton B., Great Britain, Little Brigade, Kingly, Mediator, The Widow Moon, Carlton G., Buckhorn, Helen Barbee, Chukles, John Furlong, Fort, Leochares, Froglegs, Hamilton, Edda, Horton, Kleburne, High Private and Round the World.

There are few among the list of eligibles which have not made themselves conspicuous at the finish of important stakes decided in Kentucky and Canada this season.

The coming meeting at Windsor will conflict with the Saratoga races, but, judging from the requests already made for stable room at the track across the river, one would not know it. The fact that the money distribution will be close to $6,000 a day is powerful testimony to the interest of the horsebreeders, for, after all, money makes the mare go.

While the Canadian Handicap has only sixteen nominations, the stake has attracted all that is best in breeding in the Dominion. Headed by Hearts of Oak, this year's King's plate winner, there will be found among the list of entries such well-bred Canadian horses as Hersey, Odranon, Odranilla, Widow Wise, Denham, Rockspring, Havrock, Caper Sauce and Rustling. The distance of this race of a mile and an eighth contest may be anticipated. The Canadian Handicap will be the feature on Monday, the second day of the meeting.

The Essex Handicap, the third of the stakes to be run, is for two-year-olds at five and one-half furlongs. Among the youngsters which have already familiarized themselves with race-goers' eligibility this fixture are: The Usher, Car Michael, Little Nephew, Vandergrift, David Craig, Perpetual and Southern Maid.

The St. Clair Handicap, three-quarters of a mile, will be the fourth stake decided. Many of the entries in the Ferry Handicap are among the list of eligibles to this stake and in addition will be found Sun Queen, Lovette, Closer, Pen Zareta, Crisco, Buskin, Prince Ahmed, Tankard and other swift sprinters. There are thirty-two nominations to the St. Clair.

For the Windsor Selling Stakes, which is set for decision on the closing day of the meeting, there are forty-two nominations. The more prominent of the eligibles include Bussy, Copperdown, Prince Ahmed, Knights Differ, Spring Maid, Fountain Fay, Tecumseh, Melton Street, Adelaide T., Font, Grosvenor, Jenny Geddes, Hamilton, Edda, Brawny, Spellbound, Honey Bee and High Private.

The coming Windsor meeting will open on Saturday and close on Saturday, thus embracing two half holidays.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jefferson Livingston of Cincinnati has purchased the Whitney-bred two-year-olds Delft and Florin.

Frank Bruen, who is coming to the front as a racing official, is a son of former starter William Bruen.

J. M. Rawlings' stallion Woolwinder covered thirty mares the past season, only six being thoroughbreds, however.

F. J. Pons reports the death of his stallion Great Heavens at Madison, Tenn. Great Heavens was a chestnut, foaled in 1906, being by Star Shoot out of Chapter, by Carlsbad.

Joseph W. Pugh, who has at various times figured in racing as an owner, has been nominated by the Democrats for sheriff of Kenton County, Ky. The nomination is equivalent to election.

W. C. Daniel, of Paris, Ky., purchased recently from Samuel Clay the chestnut mare Blazing Star, foaled 1905, by Star Shoot out of Alarm Belle. Blazing Star was mated to Toddington this season.

Word comes from Laurel that the stake books for the October meeting of the Maryland State Fair Association will be in the hands of the horsemen about August 15. The meeting will open October 1 and continue throughout the month.

Complaints having been made that a telegraphic tape machine recently placed in the British House of Commons gives only results of the chief horse races, several M. P.'s have, says the London Daily Mail, asked the Office of Works to make the results of all races and the starting prices supplied.

Frank McCabe, the trainer of thoroughbreds who years ago handled the horses of the Dwyer Brothers, has returned from France, where he has been during the past two years. McCabe's successes with Miss Woodford, Tremont, Hanover, Longstreet, King Fish, Inspector B., Belle B. and any number of high class horses will be remembered by old-timers at the game. McCabe owned and trained Ragman with success, this being the last horse he handled in this country before leaving for France, when he took over with John Mackey thirty two-year-olds and three-year-olds for the sales ring. McCabe has been helping Enoch Wishard, who has a small stable in France and reports him as doing well.
